

Vesicular Stomatitis Virus IN CATTLE

SYMPTOMS

1. Excessive Salivation
2. Lesions in the mouth & nose
3. Reduced appetite
4. Teat lesions or sloughing
5. Lesions around the feet and coronary band
6. Lameness

PREVENTION

1. Strict fly control in and around buildings
 - Manure management
 - Elimination of fly breeding areas
 - Appropriate insecticide use and application for cattle, milking parlors, and outdoor areas
2. Isolate suspect animals immediately and report

REPORT

Notify CDFA
immediately if you have suspicion of VSV.

Animal Health Branch
Headquarters - (916) 900-5002
Redding District - (530) 225-2140
Modesto District - (209) 491-9350
Tulare District - (559) 685-3500
Ontario District - (909) 947-4462
USDA-APHIS-VS - (916) 854-3950
or (877) 741-3690