

Cows that eat byproducts

HELP SAVE WATER

Around 40% of a California dairy cow's diet consists of byproducts from food and fiber production — meaning less water (1.3-trillion gallons of water a year) and other resources used for cow feed.

Spent brewer's
grain

Grape
pomace

Almond
hulls

Citrus
pulp

Cotton
seed